Thacher Montessori School (Toddler-AP in Milton, MA) is accepting applications for lead guides at all levels.

The ideal lead guide candidate will have:

- At least three years of Montessori teaching experience at one level
- AMI or AMS Montessori training (AMI required at 0-3 and 3-6 levels)

More importantly, we are seeking lead guides with:

- Deep knowledge of Montessori theory
- Impressive experience with how to apply Montessori theory successfully
- A talent for innovative problem solving that is consistent with those same Montessori principles and practices
- An affinity for learning while leading a class
- A desire to shape a connected community of staff, parents, and students

Thacher teaching staff members strive for the following qualities:

- Flexibility in addressing children's needs
- Excellent observation skills
- A sense of humility with peers
- Great communication skills with parents
- The ability to listen and be present

Located within a half-mile of Boston city limits, the school enjoys a rich cultural and geographic diversity in a natural setting, lying between a 7,000-acre nature preserve and The Wakefield Estate, a 23-acre arboretum with livestock and specimen gardens. Each of our 11 classrooms in a 1989 building designed for Montessori schooling is led by a Montessori trained guide, assisted by a second faculty member and, at the elementary and adolescent levels, specialists. The school is AMS accredited for all ages and recognized at the 0-3 and 3-6 levels by AMI. With a strong foundation built over the last 46 years, the school is poised to carry out its missions as a fully realized and still developing Montessori community.
